

Nancy Dolan

Nancy is an accredited graphic designer and for 20 years has been the sole proprietor of Seaside Designs, a Victoria based visual communications firm. She is also an award winning fine art photographer and in 2005, was chosen as one of the Tall Ships Victoria Artists' in Residence. Since 2003, she has conducted 'The Art of Seeing' photography workshops at various venues around the Victoria area. The last three years,

Nancy received an Award of Excellence from Photographer's Forum Magazine. Her work is exhibited regularly in regional juried gallery shows (June & July at The Sooke Region Museum 'Westcoast Works') and the Fairfield Studio Tour every spring.

Her combination of artistic passion, love of nature & entrepreneurial spirit resulted in the establishment of CasualNaturalist Press in 2000, her own publishing company that markets her natural history guidebook of the Pacific Northwest, The CasualNaturalist's Guide to the the Salish Sea, as well as a range of products including art cards, coasters and desktop calendars.

She is transforming her fine art photography into a stand alone business and is marketing her unique images and expanding her product line with the addition of home accessories products i.e lampshades, room dividers, and wall coverings that feature her nature photography.
